Subject: Tea

My grandfather gave me a bag of tea, Sencha Ginkgo, and there's no label on it, as far as who made it, aside from "L'Heron" a community name and a phone number and email. The bag IS probably at least 3 years old, but it's quite possibly the best smelling tea I've ever had.

Do you still make tea? If so, where is it available. And do you have a website?

Thanks,
Matthew
